PREAMBLE

Hemchandracharya North Gujarat University, Patan, Gujarat:

HNGU was established by the Ordinance No. 5 of 1986 dated 17.5.1986 which was later passed as the North Gujarat University Act No.22 of 1986 on 11/9/86 by the Legislative Assembly of Gujarat. The university has completed 26 golden years of a fruitful existence that has brought it to the forefront in terms of its academic and research excellence.

HNGU comprises more than 20 Postgraduate Departments, a constituent college, and 286 affiliated colleges. There are 41 PG Centers in the affiliated colleges and institutions. The teaching programme covered at Postgraduate level under various faculties such as Science, Arts, Commerce, Management, Engineering, Pharmacy, Medicine, Homeopathy, Home Science, Law and Education includes Ph.D., M. Phil., Postgraduate Degree Courses, Postgraduate Diploma Courses, Diploma Courses, and Advanced Certificate Courses. Undergraduate Courses are generally taught in the colleges or institutes affiliated to the University.

The courses offered are framed keeping in view the needs of the students, the society, and the employing agencies, industry or organisations at the state, the national and the international levels.

With such a variety of disciplines available, it is possible for any prospective student to choose what he/she would like to do while pursuing further studies.

K.J. Somaiya College of Science and Commerce, Maharashtra:

In September 1959, a philanthropist and visionary Shri Karamshibhai Jethabhai Somaiya envisaged the blending of spiritual/value education along with advanced science education which eventually gave birth to 'Somaiya Vidyavihar'.

The College with equipoise and confidence decided to ascertain its standard and class and underwent the accreditation process by National Assessment and Accreditation Council. The College was conferred "A" Grade in February, 2004. The college underwent the reaccreditation process in March 2010 and once again was bestowed "A" grade. In the third cycle in May 2016 the College is reaccredited and was bestowed "A" Grade.

The College was shortlisted twice (2006 and 2007) amongst three hundred fifty urban colleges for the 'Best College Award' of University of Mumbai. The College was awarded "The Best College Award" in 2010.

Sharing of resources and innovative practices with the sister institutions has created a synergistic relationship and imparted impetus for further growth.

The college has been identified for financial support in Level-O category by the Department Of Science and Technology (DST), Government of India, New Delhi. Additionally, KJ Somaiya College of Science and Commerce received support under the STAR COLLEGE SCHEME Category by The Department of Bio Technology Government of India, New Delhi (DBT). "Human Resource Development Biotechnology-046" to six science departments viz Chemistry, Biochemistry, Botany, Zoology, Microbiology and Physics identified by the college in 2014. Recently 5 more departments viz: Mathematics, Statistics, Computer Science, Geology and Biotechnology have been sanctioned the STAR grant (2017).

The College was recently awarded "College with Potential for Excellence" by UGC in April, 2016.

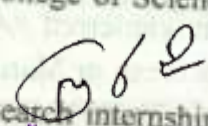

During the year, 2010-2011, efforts were directed to earn Autonomous status for the college by the University Grant Commission & subsequently the University of Mumbai vide notification no. Aff/Recog.1/914 of 2012 dated 22nd October 2012 Conferred Autonomous Status to the college in 2012.

Under autonomy, changes were made in the existing syllabi which are in tune with the changing business, industrial and social needs. Furthermore, the designed curricula are relevant to the local needs and demands. The learning methodologies such as project based learning, experiential learning, Peer learning are used.

Therefore, HNGU and K.J. Somaiya College of Science and Commerce mutually agreed to establish a programme for cooperation in areas of mutual interest, and in accordance with terms and conditions set forth in this Memorandum of Understanding (MoU). The goal of this cooperation is to foster collaboration, provide opportunity for mutually beneficial experience and to facilitate advancement of knowledge on the basis of reciprocity. The MoU between the K.J. Somaiya College of Science and Commerce and HNGU include the following:

1. Student/staff exchange for academic and research internship during the period of mutual availability.

2. Activities involving mutual exchange, teaching, research and industrial/conversational practice, joint proposal for research grant, conferences(national and international level)
3. Publishing joint research work and other academic publications such as books, manual etc
4. Organizing capacity building programmes such as workshop, trainings and seminars
5. Community outreach activities through involvement of students and staff
6. Encouraging students to work excessively in field of life sciences, wildlife and conservation biology
7. Co planning certificate / diploma courses of mutual interest (Planning handling and implementing academic and Co-curricular courses for student) (preferably involving curricular based on skill India programme)
8. Encouraging staff exchange or guest lecture series
9. Fundraising for research and capacity building
10. To develop bridge courses leading to Masters through research
11. Exchange students will be selected by mutual agreement between the parent institution and the host institution.
12. An exchange student will continue to be treated as full-time student at his/her home institution.
13. An exchange student will be considered as a full-time "exchange" student at the host institution.
14. His/her programme of study at the host institution will be determined by mutual consultation between his/her academic advisor at the home institution and his/her "interim" academic advisor identified by the host institution.
15. If an exchange student has undertaken research, then the host institution will evaluate the exchange student's performance in the research, and issue a letter to that effect, together with a technical "report" of the research carried out. The home institution will take note of the performance evaluation and the technical report, and take steps in accordance with its own procedures.
16. Both the parties agree to provide assistance in obtaining suitable accommodation at reasonable expenses (expenses will be borne by the student).
17. The exchange students will pay tuition and other fees at their home institution.
18. Basic lab facilities will be provided by the host institution, however any extra ordinary chemical or instrument facilities required will be chargeable (expenses will be borne by the student)
19. Guidelines will be decided based on mutual agreement for research paper publication, department/ faculty level collaboration. A road map for joint activities related to joint research proposal submission for research grants in various funding agencies needs to be formulated.

20. This MoU shall continue in force for five years from the date hereof and may, by mutual consent of both the organizations set down in an exchange of letters, continue in force from year to year thereafter.
21. This agreement could be renewed with mutual understanding and agreement between two organizations after the expiry of its validity period with or without any amendment or modification. Either party has the right to terminate this agreement upon six months written notice to the other. However, any research work, Ph.D., or pursuit of any other degree already initiated at the time of such a termination shall be continued till the completion of such research works or degree, as the case may be, in the same manner and under the same terms and conditions as those during the currency of the agreement.
22. This MoU does not impose any financial burden on the parties.
23. Nothing contained herein would restrict the K. J. Somaiya College or Hemchandracharya North Gujarat University to enter into a MoU with other university / academic institutions for similar research or academic works on any or all subjects.

About the Hemchandracharya North Gujarat University:

Hemchandracharya North Gujarat University (hereinafter referred as HNGU) is a State University in Gujarat, established by the Ordinance No. 5 of 1986 dated 17.5.1986 which was later passed as the North Gujarat University Act No.22 of 1986 on 11/9/86 by the Legislative Assembly of Gujarat. With a view to catering to the peculiar cultural and educational needs of the North Gujarat area, the University has been functioning since then and growing and expanding steadily.

In accordance with a mutual desire to promote and develop activities between two institutions, namely Sardar Patel University, Vallabh Vidyanagar and Hemchandracharya North Gujarat University, Patan, we agree to the following statement of intent on skill based educational and research cooperation. The cooperation in specific areas may be designed by mutual consent and incorporated into specific additional agreements upon signature by the institutions' appropriate authorities.

1. Two institutions agree to the following general areas of interest and cooperation:
 - a. Sharing of technical infrastructure to provide skill-based education;
 - b. Sharing of intellectual expertise for skill-oriented training both in terms of theory and hands-on practice;
 - c. Provide a platform for Doctoral, Post-doctoral Research, Master Dissertation and Research Projects etc., in terms of data collection and other research-related activities;
 - d. Organization of joint skill-based and professional academic programme;
 - e. Joint organization of short term training programme or workshops;
 - f. Joint promotion of each other's expertise and capabilities.

It is effective upon signing and shall remain in effect for a period of One Year or until termination by either party with 30 days written notice whichever it's earlier. This agreement may also be extended or modified at the end of third year after review and need is felt for extension of the agreement.

This memorandum of understanding is designed to reflect the understanding between Hemchandracharya North Gujarat University, Patan and SFD Patan referred hereinafter for organizing tree plantation programmes altogether throughout the year in various time occasions and places.

This memorandum of understanding MOU with HNG University to be able to better facilitate students to participate in extra curricular activities and to become the environment ambassador of the society. It will also aid to help them understand the importance of the nature. It can also help the NSS/SIP students to volunteer for the Greener and healthier tomorrow.

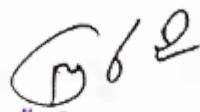

SFD India Provides students the opportunity to experience the importance of the nature and understand the end goal of sustainable development of the nation.

Students for Development (SFD) initiated in 1992 to promote the need for sustainable development in its right form. Not just the environmental issues such as water conservation and management, plastic recycling, ban on plastic usage, forest conservation, etc. but also the issues related to the development in holistic sense that are concerned with the cultural, economic and physical (materialistic) development of person, society, nation and mankind are also dealt with so that the meaning of 'Development' is understood by the people in its right spirit.

Proposal for possible collaboration through this MOU, we hope to extend the aforementioned programs to HNG University, Patan students in the following way:

1. 7000 tree plantations

Vc. Registrar
Hemchandracharya
North Gujarat University, Patan

Being connected to academicians and environmentalists across the country, we endeavored to organize tree plantation at various places in urban, Semi urban and rural areas in and around patan.

- a) Creating a regular guest lecture for students of HNG University patan other academic activities. We shall call eminent Scientists, Researchers, environmentalists and Professors to engage even smaller groups/study circles on topics of their choice, this will be based on the availability of the speakers. The frequency (we would propose a lecture every fortnight) can be negotiated mutually.
- b) The cost of the events shall be borne by a HNG University including the offline events, on mutual
- c) Campus visits/ Field visits for students studying in various national institutes should be allowed Underst to foster exchange of ideas and a sense of collaboration among the students.
- d) SFD is keen in organizing National Workshops. If in case the infrastructure is available HNG University, patan shall give its venue for such workshops.
- e) SFD Hemchandracharya North Gujrat University chapter shall be handled by the students body.

• COURSE MATERIAL / MAIN COURSE WORKBOOK -

There will be one workbook for each semester. Each workbook will be Presented and designed by BAPS IPDC Team. These official workbooks would be the course-material for study of IPDC. These workbooks will solve the purpose of study, submission and viva for students.

1. IPDC Workbook-1 (presented by B.A.P.S. Swaminarayan Sanstha)
2. IPDC Workbook-2 (presented by B.A.P.S. Swaminarayan Sanstha)

• Pattern of Lecture-Delivery :

The IPDC lectures will take place in the college classrooms and will be hosted by a university-appointed course instructor. The resources will be provided by BAPS. Each lecture has four components as shown below:

1. Introductory Film

Each lecture begins with a short film that introduces the topic through modern production. The original content displays relatable scenarios and visuals that captivate the students' attention and stimulates their curiosity to learn more.

2. Lecture Video

Students watch a lecture video presented by a dynamic speaker. The lecture reinforces the significance and necessity of fundamental principles and skills. The experience of the speaker, eloquence of presentation, and use of interactive visuals collectively create a profound impact on each student's mind and heart.

3. Student Interaction

Student interaction sessions promote stimulating discussion and conversation and help create safe spaces for the healthy exchange of ideas. Thus, each session provides a forum in which students can openly express their emotions and thoughts.

4. Workbook Activities

Workbooks assist students to begin implementing the values taught in the lecture into their personal lives. Reliable research, priceless experience, practical scenarios, and reflective questions are innovatively depicted, motivating students to contemplate and think creatively.

The Institute of Nature Conservation of the Polish Academy of Sciences (IOP PAN, <http://www.iop.krakow.pl/>) is one of the leading scientific institutions in Poland focused on nature conservation and basic and applied ecology. IOP PAN is committed to carry out research on the processes that promote, limit or endanger biological diversity, applying multiple approaches and techniques within a multidisciplinary context. IOP PAN has a long standing tradition in wildlife research, ranging from natural-history driven science and population monitoring to multidisciplinary research which have incorporated modern tools, such as molecular markers, physiological indicators, stable isotopes or ecological modeling. The addition of these techniques and scientific disciplines, such as genetics, physiology, chemistry, toxicology, mathematics, modeling and remote sensing, to IOP PAN long-term research lines, has broadened its scientific perspectives and promoted addressing research questions from new points of view. IOP PAN research deals with a wide range of species and study systems, from temperate forests and grasslands to polar regions, and including both terrestrial and aquatic ecosystems. It has a wide experience on both basic and applied research, particularly on the study of human impacts on both plant and animal populations. Studies on large carnivores have been conducted for the last decades, including ecology, management and public attitudes. Current and previous projects have contributed to establish solid cooperation with bear researchers in Europe and North America. IOP PAN has increased its international visibility as a research center in the last decade by numerous international collaborations. Fruit of these joint efforts within international teams are high-ranked publications, e.g. Walther et al 2009 TREE, Pyšek et al 2010 PNAS, Woodward et al. 2012 SCIENCE, Albrecht et al. 2014 NAT COMMUN, Moleón et al. 2014 BIOL. REVIEWS, Ibisch et al. 2016 SCIENCE. IOP PAN has also wide experience in project management at the national and international level and considerable experience in coordinating multidisciplinary research projects, such as GLOBE, LINKAGE and BEARCONNECT. It has taken part in internationally and EU-funded projects, such as RIVFUNCTION, ALARM, DAISIE or BIODIVERSA.

By this memorandum of understanding, Hemchandracharya North Gujarat University and the Institute of Nature Conservation of Polish Academy of Sciences are recognizing their mutual interest in engaging in research and academic cooperation. Therefore, it was mutually agreed to declare and foster collaboration and provide opportunities for mutually beneficial research experiences. That includes the following:

1. All parties decide to develop the following collaborative activities:
 - joint research and/or teaching activities,
 - exchange of students and research staff within specific research projects,
 - exchange of information, materials and scientific publications in the domains within the area of interests.
2. This declaration shall be used as the basis for developing working programs of completion of the specific tasks.

MEMORENDUM OF AGREEMENT

*The Pennsylvania State University
Commonwealth Campuses (India Initiative) USA*
and

Hemchandracharya North Gujarat University, Patan, India

The Pennsylvania State University, USA ("Penn State") was founded in 1855 and was designated as "Land Grant" institution for the state of Pennsylvania in 1869. Today, it is one of the premier universities in the world offering professional, doctoral, master, and undergraduate majors to more than 90,000 students each year on 24 campuses throughout the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

The Hemchandracharya North Gujarat University, India (HNGU) has been functioning since 1986 and expanding steadily. HNGU is a State University recognized by University Grant Commission of India (UGC-New Delhi) and NAAC (National Assessment and Accreditation Council). His Excellency the Governor of Gujarat is the Chancellor of the university.

Both the HNGU and Penn State are institutions of higher education which provide academic programs in the field of information science. This agreement is intended to establish a collaborative program in which students from HNGU will obtain a Penn State baccalaureate degree in Information Sciences and Technology (IST) by first completing defined study of equivalent of 64 Penn State credits at HNGU that parallels the equivalent courses (including IST and general education) of freshman/sophomore curriculum of Penn State's IST major courses and then completing the final requirements two years of study at one of eight participating Commonwealth campuses of Penn State.

The two institutions agree to the following:

I. Objective

A. Overall Objective:

To promote the development of academic, scientific, technical, and cultural relations between the two organizations, including, but not restricted to an undergraduate collaborative IST degree program, scientific research, professional development, and technical cooperation.

B. Scope of Cooperation:

1. Students will enroll at HNGU in a pre-approved series of courses which parallels Penn State's College of Information Sciences and Technology (IST) curriculum. Satisfactory completion of this component will enable students to apply to and, if accepted, to enroll at Penn State. Each student will be assigned to one of eight Commonwealth campuses (Penn State Berks, Greater Allegheny, Hazleton, Lehigh, Schuylkill, Wilkes-Barre, Worthington-Scranton, or York) by the Director of Commonwealth Campuses India Initiative in consultation with the Vice Chancellor of HNGU ensuring equal distribution among the participating Campuses of Penn State. After satisfactory completion of all degree requirements at the designated campus, the student will be awarded Bachelor of Science (B.S.) degree in IST by the College of Information Sciences and Technology at Penn State.

2. The Director of Commonwealth Campuses India Initiative will discuss possible professional development and curriculum enhancement for HNGU faculty with his counterparts at HNGU.

II. Procedures for Students

A. Coursework at HNGU:

Students from HNGU will complete a two year curriculum, equivalent to approximately 64 credits that parallels the requirements for the B.S. degree in IST at Penn State, including general education requirements. This will be achieved by enrolling these students in the B.Sc. (Bachelor of Science) in Information Technology/BCA (Bachelor of Computer Application) program offered at HNGU. Students will be enrolled in B.Sc./BCA courses and many of these courses are substantially equivalent to Penn State courses in Information Sciences and Technology at the lower level. The specific content of all IST courses taught at HNGU must be approved by the College of IST at Penn State through the Director of Commonwealth Campuses India Initiative. Furthermore, the students will be examined by the HNGU system. HNGU has committed to hiring supplemental faculty to teach the required general education courses. These general education courses need to be patterned after their equivalent Penn State courses and should be taught by faculty from other colleges of HNGU that are authorized to give such courses. Faculty teaching these courses shall be required to possess a level of professional competence equal to that held by HNGU's B.Sc./BCA faculty. Both IST and general education course content must be approved by Penn State (through the Director of Commonwealth Campuses India Initiative) before they can be offered as part of this arrangement.

Students, who opt for any reason to continue further studies at HNGU or are not able to pursue further studies at Pennsylvania State University, can do so at HNGU.

Application and Admission to Penn State

- i. Once a student has completed the required 64 credits (two year curriculum) at HNGU, the student's academic record will be sent by HNGU to Penn State, Office of the Director of Commonwealth Campuses India Initiative. Students will complete the on-line application form for admission to Penn State, and must satisfy all standards and procedures required of other international applicants, including:
 1. Completion of the undergraduate application;
 2. Submission of application fee;
 3. Submission of Grade X and Grade XII Examination Certificates and transcripts that must show all the courses attempted (not just those passed);
 4. TOEFL or IELTS score meeting Penn State requirements;
 5. Submission of official college/university transcripts;

V.C. Registrar
Hemchandracharya
North Gujarat University, Patan

6. Submission of documentation showing that the student will have sufficient funds available to meet standard costs of tuition, fees, insurance, books, supplies and medical insurance.

The official transcripts must show that the student has completed the required coursework with satisfactory grades at HNGU. The students must have an overall Grade Point Average of at least 3.0 (based upon Penn State grading scale) or 50/100 (HNGU grading scale) in order to be accepted by Penn State. Only individual courses with a grade of C (2.0) or 50/100 (HNGU grading scale) or better can be transferred into Penn State.

- ii. When accepted into the program, the student will be admitted as a third year student in the IST major (Information Systems: Design and Development or Information Technology: Integration and Application option) leading to a B.S. degree. Upon admission to Penn State, students will be assigned to one of the eight campuses offering the program by the Director of Commonwealth Campuses India Initiative in consultation with the vice chancellor of HNGU ensuring that each Penn State partner campuses receive equal number of students.
- ii. Financial Liability of students: All such liability is assumed by the individual student and his/her family.
- iii. There is no financial aid available to these students from Penn State. Students may apply for paid jobs (limited up to 20 hours/week) on campus if available and if they meet the federal requirements about eligibility to work on campus, and may complete a paid IST Internship (where available) after their first year at Penn State. It should be noted that neither on-campus jobs nor paid internships will provide enough income to pay for a semester's tuition.

B. Full-Time Study Requirement

Students at Penn State must maintain full-time status, which is defined under U.S. immigration law as a minimum of twelve (12) credits during fall and spring semesters. Under limited circumstances specifically defined by immigration regulations, and with the prior approval of an International Student Adviser at Penn State International Student Services ("ISS"), a student may be permitted to enroll in less than 12 credits. In such circumstances, the campus program coordinator must consult with ISS to determine the relevant requirements and procedures.

C. Housing and other facilities for students

- i. Participants in the program will have access to on-campus housing where available or to off-campus housing and will have the assistance of the campus Chancellor's office in obtaining same.
- ii. Students will be provided access to all facilities, including computer access, research facilities, and materials, commensurate with their standing as degree candidates.
- iii. All students attending Penn State must purchase the health insurance plan provided by the Student Insurance Office of Penn State or obtain a waiver by providing to that office proof of alternate coverage that meets Penn State's waiver standards.

III. Procedures for non-students

- A. Professors, staff members, specialists, and technicians may wish to engage in professional development and other mutually agreed upon joint projects. Penn State and HNGU will seek to facilitate visits by faculty for the purpose of research or other approved cooperative projects. The Director of Penn State Commonwealth Campuses India Initiative will coordinate such activities.
- B. The objective in exchanging staff members or faculty is to enhance and maintain working relationships for both Penn State and the HNGU. The number and duration of exchanges will be negotiated on an individual basis.
- i Both Penn State and HNGU will allow access to unclassified resources such as libraries, film and slide libraries, technical and academic materials depositories, laboratories, and studies for the purpose of enriching and developing the resources available to those involved in the program.
 - ii Exchange personnel must abide by the laws of the host country and the rules and regulations of the host organization. The cooperating institutions will seek to assist guest faculty and scholars in obtaining visas and other documents required by the government of the host country. If necessary or advisable, the Director of Penn State Commonwealth Campuses India Initiative will obtain advice and assistance from Penn State International Scholars and Faculty Visa Services.

IV. Expenses

A. Undergraduate students

For acceptance into the program Students will be required to provide evidence for ascertaining that full financial support is available to each student. This includes travel expenses, plus the standard amounts required of international students at Penn State for tuition, fees, room, board, books and supplies, insurance, and other living expenses. In order to receive the appropriate visa document from Penn State in a timely manner, documentation of this support must be provided to ISS at the time the student is offered admission.

B. Faculty and other employees

Travel funding will be the responsibility of each employee at the discretion of their home institution. Reasonable attempts will be made to seek external funds for mutual projects. Other arrangements may be made on an individual basis.

Participants (faculty and researchers) in the program coming to the HNGU or Penn State will obtain medical and accident insurance necessary for their own health assistance for the period to be spent in that institution. Participants coming to Penn State as Exchange Visitors (J visa status) must obtain insurance that meets the specific standards established by the U.S. Department of State.

V. Administration

A. Undergraduate students

The 2+2 IST degree program is the direct responsibility of the Office of the Vice President of Commonwealth Campuses and his staff, including the Director of Commonwealth Campuses India Initiative, the Chair of the Penn State Commonwealth Campuses India Initiative, and the Associate Dean for Academic

B. Faculty and other employees

Administrative structures at each of the eight participating Penn State campuses will be determined on a case-by-case basis. Each campus will designate a campus coordinator to support the Director of Commonwealth Campuses in carrying out activities undertaken pursuant to this agreement.

VI. Intellectual Property

This agreement covers only research and academic cooperation, and does not cover the generation of intellectual property.

VII. Equal Access Policy

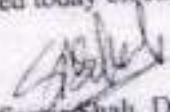

Both institutions are committed to the policy that all persons shall have equal access to programs, facilities, admission, and employment without regard to personal characteristics not related to ability, performance, or qualifications as determined by the respective Penn State and HNGU policies or by state or federal authorities. Neither institution discriminates against any person because of age, ancestry, color, disability or handicap, national origin, race, religious creed, sex, sexual orientation, or veteran status. Penn State and HNGU shall abide by these principles in the administration of this MOA, and neither institution shall impose criteria for the exchange of faculty, scholars or students which would violate the principles of non-discrimination.

VIII. Evaluation/Assessment

The offices responsible for administering this agreement will jointly review the program every three years to assess its effectiveness in promoting the institutions' respective international education goals. This agreement will start immediately after all signatures have been obtained and will be effective for three years, subject to revision or modification by mutual written agreement, unless terminated by either party in the form of a written notice submitted at least twelve months in advance of the academic year in which the termination is to become effective.

Students enrolled in this program prior to such termination of agreement will be allowed to complete their studies at Penn State if they meet admissions requirements. Controversies regarding the interpretation and execution of this Agreement will be resolved by a committee comprised of following representatives from each institution: Michael Adewumi, Vice Provost for International Programs, Penn State, Prof. Jitendra H. Pancholi, Pro-Vice-Chancellor, HNGU.

Memorandum of Understanding between

Hemchandracharya North Gujarat University, Patan, Gujarat, INDIA

and

Georgia Southwestern State University, Americus, Georgia, USA

In order to promote cooperation and the advancement of academic and educational exchanges between the Hemchandracharya North Gujarat University (HNGU) and Georgia Southwestern State University (GSW), the two institutions agree as follows:

Within fields that are mutually acceptable, the following general forms of cooperation will be pursued:

- Exchange of undergraduate and/or graduate students.
- Exchange of faculty and/or staff.
- Joint research activities and publications.
- Participation in seminars and academic meetings.
- Exchange of academic materials and other information.
- Special short-term academic programs.

The terms of cooperation for each specific activity implemented under this Agreement of Cooperation shall be mutually discussed and agreed upon in writing by both parties prior to the initiation of that activity. Any such agreements entered into, as outlined above, will form appendices to this Agreement of Cooperation. Each institution shall designate a liaison officer to develop and coordinate the specific activities agreed upon.

This Agreement becomes effective on the date of signature. It is valid for five (5) years with the understanding that either party may terminate the Agreement with twelve (12) months notice in writing, unless an earlier termination is mutually agreed upon. Revisions or modifications may be proposed at anytime, effective from the date of written agreement signed by both parties.

PREAMBLE

Hemchandracharya North Gujarat University, Patan, Gujarat:

HNGU was established by the Ordinance No. 5 of 1986 dated 17.5.1986 which was later passed as the North Gujarat University Act No.22 of 1986 on 11/9/86 by the Legislative Assembly of Gujarat. The university has completed 26 golden years of a fruitful existence that has brought it to the forefront in terms of its academic and research excellence.

HNGU comprises of more than 20 Postgraduate Departments, a constituent college, and 286 affiliated colleges. There are 41 PG Centers in the affiliated colleges and institutions. The teaching programme covered at Postgraduate level under various faculties such as Science, Arts, Commerce, Management, Engineering, Pharmacy, Medicine, Homeopathy, Home Science, Law and Education includes Ph.D., M. Phil., Postgraduate Degree Courses, Postgraduate Diploma Courses, Diploma Courses, and Advanced Certificate Courses. Undergraduate Courses are generally taught in the colleges or institutes affiliated to the University.

The courses offered are framed keeping in view the needs of the students, the society, and the employing agencies industry or organisations at the state, the national and the international levels.

With such a variety of disciplines available, it is possible for any prospective student to choose what he/she would like to do while pursuing further studies.

Gujarat Forest Department, Gujarat:

Gujarat Forest Department is an administrative department of Government of Gujarat dedicated to conservation and management of state forest and wildlife. It is entrusted with the prime responsibility of protection, conservation, and development of forest and wildlife of the state. The primary concerns of the department are implementation of policies and programmes relating to conservation of the state's natural resources including its biodiversity, forests and wildlife and ensuring the welfare of animals etc. While implementing these policies and programmes, the department is guided by the Principle of Sustainable Development and Environmentally Sound Technology. These objectives are well supported by a set of legislative and regulatory measures.

One of the objectives of the forest department is to enhance the capacity of field staff and conservation outreach, research and monitoring on wildlife and habitat involving local institutions, experts and students.

Therefore, HNGU and Gujarat Forest Department are mutually agreed to establish a programme for cooperation in areas of mutual interest, in accordance with terms and conditions set forth in this Memorandum of Understanding (MoU). The goal of this cooperation is to foster collaboration, provide opportunity for mutually beneficial experience and to facilitate advancement of knowledge on the basis of reciprocity. The MoU between Gujarat Forest Department and HNGU includes the following.

1. Guj. Forest Department and HNGU will jointly organize Skill Development of front line Forest field staff in following subjects as per Management Plan such as:

1. Wildlife Habitat and Population Assessment Techniques
2. Wildlife Conservation and Management (habitats, animals)
3. Human Wildlife Conflict with special reference to Sloth Bear.

2. To organize state and national level training and capacity building programmes for forest field staff and research students studying in the field of science and technology. These training programmes will be held jointly in which the Guj Forest Department will provide the financial and logistic assistance subject to availability of budget /funds and HNGU will provide the knowledge resources.

3. Guj. Forest Department and HNGU will promote the involvement of frontline staff in Data Management; Project Planning and Monitoring and Informatics.

4. A joint co-ordination committee of Guj. Forest Department and HNGU will be constituted to recommend within the framework of both the organizations rules and regulations to initiate and promote joint Capacity building programmes, Promote and support joint training.

5. This MoU shall continue in force initially for three years from the date hereof and this agreement could be renewed with mutual understanding and agreement between two organizations after the expiry of its validity period with or without any amendment or modification.

6. This MoU is not exclusive. Nothing contained herein would restrict the Guj. Forest Department or Hemchandracharya North Gujarat University to enter into a MoU with other university / academic institution for the purpose of developing capabilities of the field staff/ researchers in the same field.

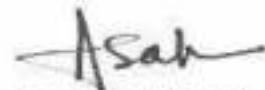

7. Either party has the right to terminate this agreement upon six months written notice to the other.

With such a variety of disciplines available, it is possible for any prospective student to choose what he/she would like to do while pursuing further studies.

Zoology department, K.J. Somaiya College, Maharashtra:

In September 1959, a philanthropist and visionary Shri Karamshibhai Jethabhai Somaiya envisaged the blending of spiritual/value education along with advanced science education which eventually gave birth to 'Somaiya Vidyavihar'.

The College with equipoise and confidence decided to ascertain its standard and class and underwent the accreditation process by National Assessment and Accreditation Council. The College was conferred "A" Grade in February, 2004. The college underwent the reaccreditation process in March 2010 and once again was bestowed "A" grade. In the third cycle in May, 2016 the College is reaccredited and was bestowed "A" Grade.

The College was shortlisted twice (2006 and 2007) amongst three hundred fifty urban colleges for the 'Best College Award' of University of Mumbai. The College was awarded "The Best College Award" in 2010.

Sharing of resources and innovative practices with the sister institutions has created a synergistic relationship and imparted impetus for further growth.

The college has been identified for financial support in Level-0 category by the Department Of Science and Technology (DST), Government of India, New Delhi. Additionally, KJ Somaiya College of Science and Commerce received support under the STAR COLLEGE SCHEME Category by the Department of Bio Technology Government of India, New Delhi (D.B.T) Human Resource Development Biotechnology Cell to six science departments viz. Chemistry, Biochemistry, Botany, Zoology, Microbiology and Physics identified by the college in 2014. Recently 5 more departments viz: Mathematics, Statistics, Computer Science, Geology and Biotechnology have been sanctioned the STAR grant (2017).

The College has recently awarded "College with Potential for Excellence" by UGC in April, 2016.

During the year,2010-2011, efforts were directed to earn Autonomous status for the college by the University Grant Commission & subsequently the University of Mumbai vide notification no. Aff/Recog.1/914 of 2012 dated 22nd October 2012 Conferred Autonomous Status to the college in 2012.

Under autonomy, changes were made in the existing syllabi which are in tune with the changing business, industrial and social needs. Furthermore, the designed curricula are relevant to the local needs and demands. The learning methodologies such as project based learning, experiential learning, Peer learning are used.

Department of Zoology established as a separate department in 1976 was earlier part of the Biology established more than 50 years ago. The department enrolls students for Bachelors and Masters in Zoology (B.Sc. and M.Sc.). Specialization in oceanography, Entomology is offered at the Masters level.

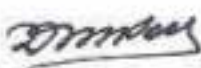

Therefore, HNGU and Zoology department, K.J. Somaiya College are mutually agreed to establish a programme for cooperation in areas of mutual interest, an in accordance with terms and conditions set forth in this Memorandum of Understanding (MoU). The goal of this cooperation is to foster collaboration, provide opportunity for mutually beneficial experience and to facilitate advancement of knowledge on the basis of reciprocity. The MoU between Zoology department, K.J. Somaiya College and HNGU includes the following.

1. Student/staff exchange for academic and research internship during the period of mutual availability
2. Activities involving mutual exchange, teaching, research and industrial/conversational practice
3. Publishing joint research work and other academic publications such as books, manual etc
4. Organizing capacity building programmes such as workshop, trainings and seminars
5. Community outreach activities through involvement of students and staff
6. Encouraging students to work excessively in field of life sciences, wildlife and conservation biology
7. Co planning certificate / diploma courses of mutual interest (Planning handling and implementing academic and Co-curricular courses for student)
8. Encouraging staff exchange or guest lecture series
9. Fundraising for research and capacity building
10. To develop bridge courses leading to Masters through research
11. Exchange students will be selected by mutual agreement between the parent institution and the host institution.
12. An exchange student will continue to be treated as full-time student at his/her home institution.
13. An exchange student will be considered as full-time "exchange" student at the host institution.

Vc. Registrar
Hemchandracharya
North Gujarat University, Patan

14. His/her programme of study at the host institution will be determined by mutual consultation between his/her academic advisor at the home institution and his/her "interim" academic advisor identified by the host institution.
15. If an exchange student has undertaken research, then the host institution will evaluate the exchange student's performance in the research, and issue a letter to that effect, together with a technical "report" of the research carried out.
16. If an exchange student has undertaken research, then the home institution will take note of the performance evaluation and the technical report, and take steps in accordance with its own procedures.
17. Both the parties agree to provide suitable accommodation and living as reasonable expenses for student exchange.
18. The exchange students will pay tuition and other fees at their home institution.
19. This MoU shall continue in force initially for three years from the date hereof and may, by mutual consent of both the organizations set down in an exchange of letters, continue in force from year to year thereafter.
20. This agreement could be renewed with mutual understanding and agreement between two organizations after the expiry of its validity period with or without any amendment or modification. Either party has the right to terminate this agreement upon six months written notice to the other. However, any research work, Ph.D., or pursuit of any other degree already initiated at the time of such a termination shall be continued till the completion of such research works or degree, as the case may be, in the same manner and under the same terms and conditions as those during the currency of the agreement.
21. This MoU does not impose any financial burden on the parties.
22. Nothing contained herein would restrict the Zoology Department, K. J. Somaiya College or Hemchandracharya North Gujarat University to enter into a MoU with other university / academic institution for similar research or academic works on any or all subjects.
